Hosein Earns Spot in Record Books 2016-02-10

On their 34 game, of the Steel Subaru 2015-16 regular season, Aidan Hosein recorded his 7 shutout. This shutout gave him the record for the most shutouts in regular season play. The record replaces the record held by Justin Ritcey in the 2012-13 season.

Biography - Aidan Hosein

Aidan joined the Steele Subaru Major Midgets this year after moving to Halifax from Oakville, Ontario. While there he played senior varsity hockey for Oakville Trafalgar High School. Aidan, at sixteen years of age, is currently in grade eleven at Halifax Grammar School and hopes to play for an NCAA university in the future.

A fan of Carey Price, Aidan has focused on improving his reading of the play this season and his now NSEMMHL league record of 7 shut outs in regular season play would indicate his growth in this area. In the off season, Aidan enjoys playing lacrosse and is a music aficionado.

“Hosey” is a popular member of our team but certainly leads his teammates in superstitious behaviour. Aidan’s game day routine with his aversion to floor lines and cracks is becoming famous!

FROM HOCKEYSCENE: GOALTENDER BREAKS 18-YEAR OLD RECORD HALIFAX, NS - January 21, 2010

When Jake Brennan of the Halifax Titans started in net Tuesday night against the Cape Breton West Islanderst, he didn’t stop to think he had a chance to set a new record in Nova Scotia Major Midget Hockey, all he knew was he wanted to help his team win.

Well, he got the win, a shutout win, and with that win he set a new record, five shutouts in one regular season of play. "It was a good thing to get," he said about the record, "Shutouts are hard to get but the team helped me. They played just as hard as ever, even though we were up 6-0 and the coaches told them to keep the pressure on so I guess we all had a shutout."

The previous record of four shutouts was set in 1982 by Cape Breton Tradesmen's Philip David and was tied 10 years later by Trent Cavicchi, of the Dartmouth Subways. Now, 18 years later, 15 year old, rookie, Jake Brennan, has set a new record for others to strive to break. And it didn't come easily, he was called on to make 35 saves to get it.

In an interview later, he said he has been a goaltender since his first year of atom. "I always wanted to be one, I just thought from the first time I was with a team, I want to be the goaltender and I got the chance and have been playing in net ever since."

The 6'0, 160 pound rookie has taken to his first year in major midget with ease and is looking forward to his time with the Titans. "I guess when I'm finished here I'd like to move on to the next level. Right now I'm just happy to be where I am. It's a great team and great coaches," he said.

Asked what he liked most about being a goaltender, the grade 10 student at Halifax Grammar School said, "I think it's because you control the game. The pressure is on you to stop the puck, keep the other team from scoring."

"You know sometimes things go wrong up the ice and someone comes in and can score a goal that could be the winner and it's up to you to stop them. It's up to you to try to win the game," he said. "I mean everyone has to play their very best but sometimes it's all up to you. You're the last person who can stop them, I guess that's what I like the most about goaltending."

"But I have to say it takes everyone working real hard, all game, and the coaches to be there to remind us what we have to do to win. I really have to thank everyone. A goaltender can't set the record without the help of the whole team and we have a great team," he said.

The Hammond Plains native currently has a GAA (goals against average) of 1.94 in 15 games and it just could be he'll add a few more shutouts to his resume in the months and years ahead.

82 Colonels to be inducted into Sport Hall of Fame

Published on February 18, 2010

SYDNEY - The 1981-82 edition of the Cape Breton Colonels may have been a mix of talent from different local minor hockey associations, but together, they jelled both on and off the ice to put together a memorable season.

The Colonels, who won the Maritime Midget 'AAA' Hockey League championship and took home a bronze medal from the Air Canada Cup national midget hockey championship that season, will be inducted under the team category into the Cape Breton Sport Hall of Fame at a ceremony May 30 at Centre 200, to be held in conjunction with the Cape Breton Sport Heritage Awards.

"We had a great group of guys and everybody's done well since then and we've always kept in touch, so it's one of those things we're all proud of."

The Colonels finished second in the regular-season standings that year behind the Dartmouth Forbes Chevies. Both teams met in the league final, with the winner to advance to the Air Canada Cup being held in Victoria, B.C.

Cape Breton upset Dartmouth in their best-of-five series, 3-1, winning the final game in the Chevies' own barn. One motivator for the Colonels, said MacKeigan, was that the Dartmouth team had their hotel rooms in Victoria already booked.

The Colonels were led offensively that season by forward Fabian Joseph, who set league records for goals (53) and points (97) in a season.

In goal, Phil David set a record with four shutouts in a season, a mark that was equalled by Trent Cavicchi of Dartmouth a decade later.

Their 1982 league championship victory was the first for the Colonels, who wouldn't win the title again until 1991.

"You're only as good as the guys around you," said Joseph. "I was fortunate enough to play with some great players and Jack was a big part of that.

"It's one of those things that the older you get, the more you appreciate it."

The Colonels, under head coach and former NHLer Paul (Jigger) Andrea, assistant coach Jackie MacKeigan Sr. and supported by manager Rod McCarron and equipment manager Teddy Gouthro, faced stiff competition at the national midget tournament.

Entries included the eventual champion Burnaby Winter Club Travelers led by future NHLer Cliff Ronning, the Notre Dame Hounds of Saskatchewan, boasting the likes of Wendel Clarke, Gary Leeman and Russ Courtnall, and the Ste. Foy Gouverneurs that starred Patrick Roy in goal.

Cape Breton had a real wake-up call in the opening game, getting drubbed by Roy's Ste. Foy team by a 10-1 score.

"I remember we got there the night before and we didn't play until the next night until late and by the time we finished the game, it was 2 a.m. our time," said Andrea.

"The kids just weren't in the game, their heads weren't there and their legs weren't there. I told them after the game to treat this game like a practice.

"We're much better than this, so don't even worry about it. Go, have a good sleep and we'll get back at it tomorrow.

"The next night, we beat Notre Dame 3-2. The kids really played well. If we had got to the final, Fabian would have been most valuable player of that tournament."

The Colonels eventually played in the bronze medal game against the South Ottawa Warriors.

Both teams battled to double overtime and because the championship game between Burnaby and Ste. Foy was being televised, the Cape Breton-South Ottawa tilt ended in a draw. As a result, both teams were awarded the bronze medal.

"It was a very well balanced club and everybody bought in," said Andrea. "They worked hard from the first to third line.

"Actually, I never really had lines. My motto was that if you're good enough to make the team, you're good enough to play.

"Not everybody played the power play, but certainly everybody played when it was their turn to play and that's just the way it was.

"I told the kids from the start that this is probably the best hockey you'll ever play, so enjoy it, play your best, don't worry about losing because we're going to win, all you had to do is work hard."

Coach a local rink legend Midget giant MacIsaac described as being 'tough as nails'

By Carl Fleming

Longtime friends call him 'Don A.B.' and describe him as a pillar in the community. Rival coaches say he's 'tough as nails' and warn that he's 'a guy you don't mess with.'

The latter comment, perhaps, lends some credence to one of the most memorable old war stories originating from the Antigonish Memorial Arena.

Although the details are sketchy, the highlights had Don A.B. charging into the second tier of seats, gear and all, and not stopping until some heckling fans were cowering somewhere in the parking lot.

Outwardly at least, Don MacIsaac, 51, may have mellowed somewhat since his rock 'em-sock 'em senior hockey playing days of a generation ago.

But the passion Don A.B. (the initials stand for Angus Bernard, his father) holds for his favorite sport remains as strong as ever. Who else is there with a minor coaching resume spanning 32 years and counting?

"Don has given his heart and soul to minor hockey," says Cape Breton Capers coach Francis (Chebot) Cormier, a longtime friend. "There's no end to the energy he's had for the game. At the same time he's been very dedicated to his wife (Murdo) and family (seven children). He's made a large contribution to the area."

For the past 12 seasons, MacIsaac has served as GM / coach / trainer / vice president / fund raiser / taxi driver and more for the Nova Midgets - charter members of the Maritime AAA Midget League and its successor, the Nova Scotia AAA Midget League.

And his track record -- three trips to the national championships, one national bronze medal, an undefeated tour of Sweden, over 25 players drafted by major junior teams, at least three players (son Allan, Al MacInnis and John Bekkers) drafted by NHL teams, and 12 consecutive playoff appearances -- guarantees instant respect for every Novas squad even before it takes to the ice.

"The Novas play a certain way," says Halifax McDonald's coach Rusty James. "They're physical. Tough. They dump the puck in and they play hard for 60 minutes."

In other words, they are a mirror image of their coach.

Since he has been around the AAA midget circuit since Day 1, MacIsaac knows better than most the effect it has had on the provincial amateur hockey scene.

"At the outset (back in 1978-79), we figured the time had come to get all the best kids in the Maritimes together in one league," said the Scott Maritimes' employee. "Now, all you have to do is look where the kids in the university and junior leagues are coming from.

"This league seems to be a stepping stone. It has created a vacuum for high achievers, kids who have dreams of moving on."

The NSMHL's reputation for a high standard of play didn't come overnight, however.

"Any league is only as good as the people running it," said MacIsaac, an imposing figure at six-foot-four. "In our case, we've had people like Dave Driscoll, R. B. Kimball and Wayne MacPherson running things over the years. They like to do things right and the spin-off (for the teams and players) is great."

Although he devotes an estimated 50 hours per week (not to mention spending a sizable amount of his own money over the years) to the Novas, there is no mistaking why MacIsaac has never grown tired of the wear and tear.

"The bottom line is that the midgets are genuine," he said. "They may not have all the skills but in most cases they'll give you 105 per cent. We've even got players who travel 160 miles (round-trip) to practice."

Coaching his own boys (Allan, Blaire and Ian, not to mention at least six nephews over the years) has provided a special challenge.

"It makes for a very tough situation when there is family involved," said the former president of Antigonish minor hockey. "It's easier if your kids are fairly good, but if they aren't, it's awkward."

Rest assured that the MacIsaac boys could more than hold their own but their dad concedes he was 'maybe too tough' on them, nonetheless.

Although Don A.B. talks about hanging up his coach's hat "if somebody came along who would do it...", one suspects he'll stick around at least until youngest son Colin (a six-foot-plus bantam-aged defenceman) makes the grade.

In the meantime, he's got another edition of the Novas to run and, as usual, it is among the league's upper echelon with a fourth-place 7-5-2 record entering a weekend double-header against the Valley Wildcats.

"We've got something -- big hearts and really dedicated type guys -- we didn't have as much of last year," said MacIsaac. "Our penalty killing and power play units are built from each line.

"Sometimes it hurts during the regular season, but it helps in the end because you're not depending on two or three guys in the playoffs."

It's a tried-and-true theory. Don A.B. has been around long enough to know.

Most of the information in these record books can't be found elsewhere.

The early years are very hard to find information from.

If anybody can help out with the missing information (player stats, trophy winners and All-Star info) from the first couple of seasons, it would be very much appreciated.

It's one of those things where it's hard to rest until you fill in the missing pieces.
